

Why do most Christians categorically demonize gender injured people with no knowledge of their individual physical or Spiritual state or lifestyle? But there is nary a peep from the same Christians decrying their immoral cis* neighbors or work associates?

Where are the shepherds?

You and I are the laborers.

This suffering field is white to the harvest.
Can Christ send you to that field?

What if He does???

Will you hear them, bind up their wounds, and bring them to the Inn? Or shut them out, gossip, and pharisaically shred them to ribbons?

*A cis person is a 100% gender typical male or female
